

PD

Pleasure Dome

Home

Programming

Online Screenings

Publications

Membership

About Us

Announcements

Search

PAUL TARRAGÓ'S PAUL AND THE BADGER

Episode 6

preceding each screening of the season

Episode 2

Part of Fall 2010

Episode 5

UK artist Paul Tarragó's 8-part video Paul and the Badger (2005 —
9) will screen as a serial throughout the fall, with episodes
preceding each screening of the season.

Episode 5

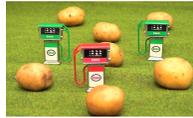

Episode 1

Recasting a glove
puppet TV show
through his own

Episode 7

STAMPS

Episode 2

Episode 7

Episode 5

Episode 6

Episode 3

present-day sensibilities, Paul assumes the role of kindly uncle mentor to a household of capersome woodland creatures. Mortality, self-sacrifice, depression, altered states of consciousness and transgressive art practices are all explored as part of their everyday lives together. Meanwhile, the show is mindful to adhere to the traditional structural formulae, with entertainment numbers and routines appropriate to the scaled-down sitcom world that they occupy. The series is equal parts moral instruction and

narrative play,
mediated through
the forced fit of an experimental filmmaker as children's entertainer.

Presenting Experimental Media Art Since 1989 Pleasure Dome